See That Smile . . .

Regardless of the time or place, these elementary students find it easy to make a good time out of any situation they may be faced with.

Michelle Baukema and friends (picture 1, p. 2) grin widely for the photographer.

Radiant Smile

You Never Looked So Good!

... during a year that brought many challenges, new friends, growth in personalities and increased knowledge. Your smiles shine through everyday, with each new challenge you accept. Even though there were also disappointments and defeats ... YOU REALLY LOOK GOOD.

Reflections Show . . .

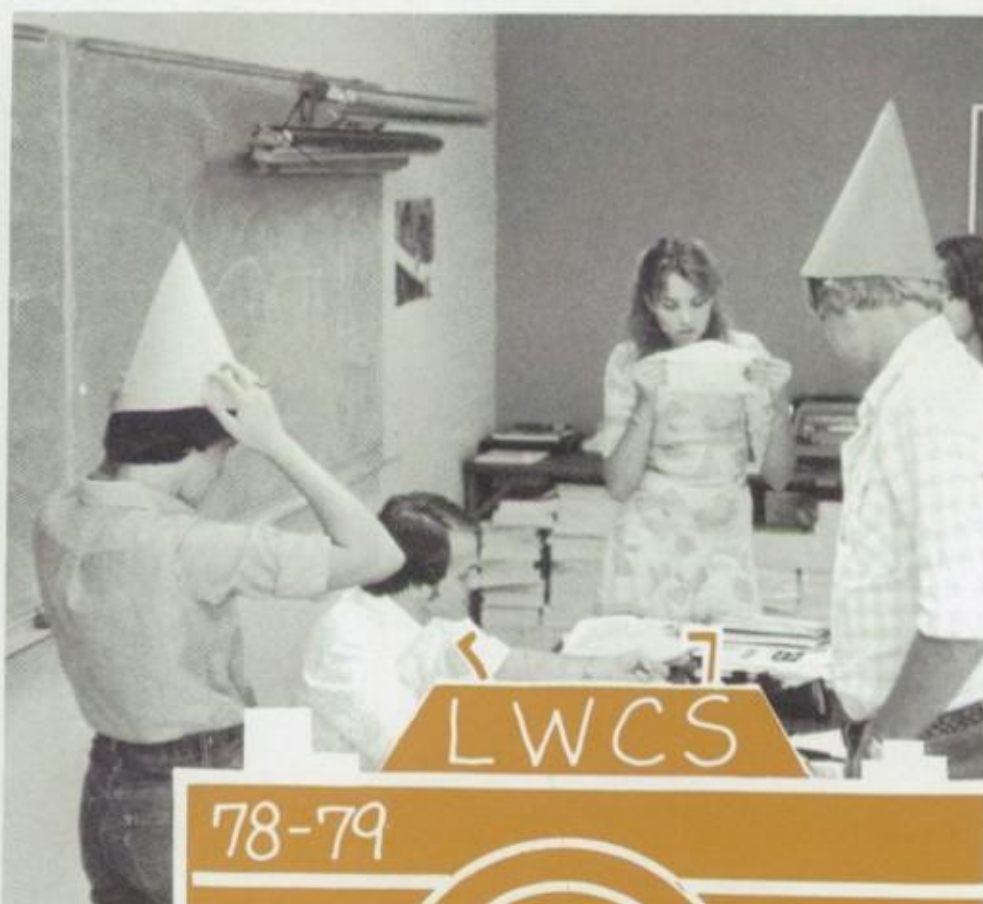

Burning the midnight oil, with fatigue setting in, the Reflections staff keeps right on grinding through the night. The aching feet from tracking down advertisements, the hours spent selling candy and soft drinks, the disappointment over the total flop of the phonebook drive; all is forgotten the minute the staff lays eyes on the completed yearbook. It was worth every second, because . . . LAKE WORTH CHRISTIAN, YOU NEVER LOOKED SO GOOD!

LWCS

SENIORS

PATRICIA BEST

Played varsity sports for four years; hopes to be a P.E. teacher and coach; appreciates the experience received at L.W.C.

EDWARD BRILL

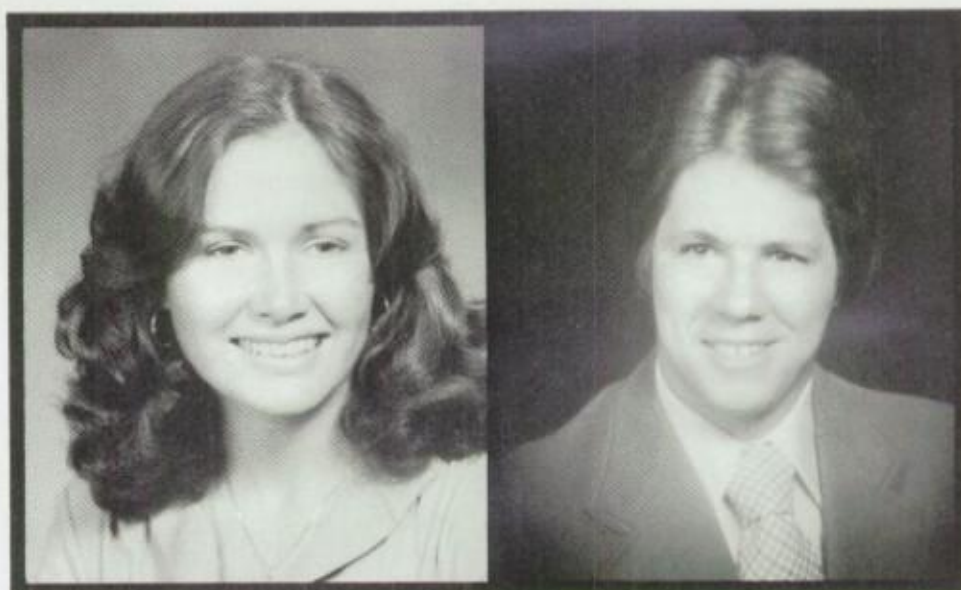

"The Senior year goes too fast"; hopes to get a college education and be successful.

PATRICIA COATES

Senior year was full of "Wild and Crazy times." All of High School life was a highlight-except classes.

GREGORY CRUMPTON

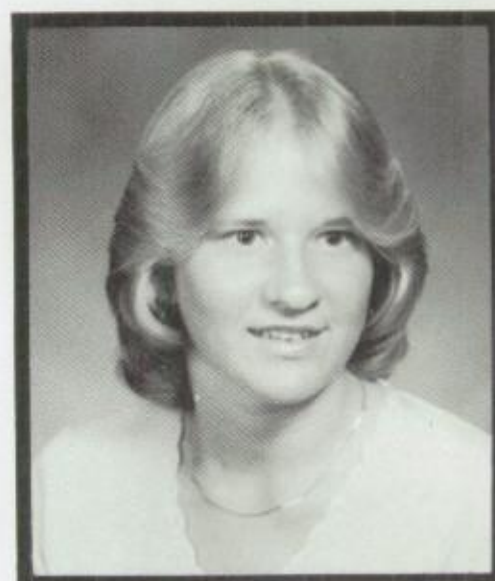

Had good times during Senior year; major ambition is to be a paramedic.

SHERRIE DE VRIES

"A big turning point in life was deciding to go to college after despising school for four years." Interested in art and elementary education.

1. Seniors get wrapped in toilet paper during spirit week. 2. Rich Louter licks his lips after a pie eating contest.

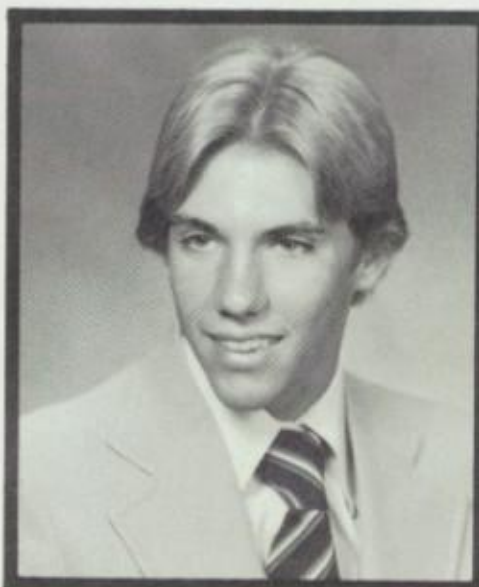

KATHY DE VRIES

Enjoyed senior math because it was "small"; likes playing the flute and talking on the phone.

KATHERINE GILDE

Hopes to work with the airlines; enjoys business classes and athletics.

DALE HAGEDORN

Enjoyed athletics; a highlight was being captain of the soccer and basketball teams.

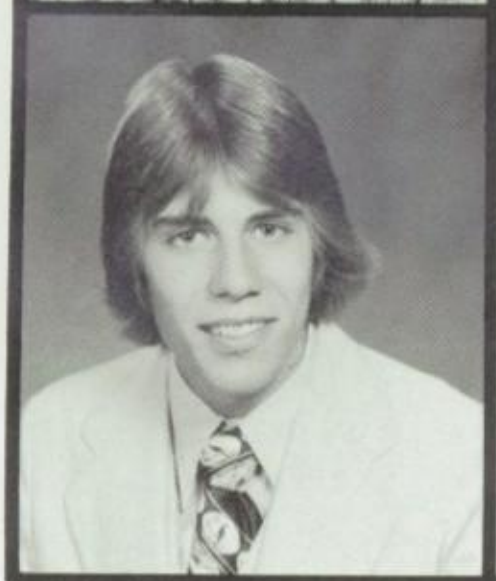

CAROL HOGAN

Highlight was the class trip; a hobby includes finding things "to drive people nuts."

JON KOOIENGA

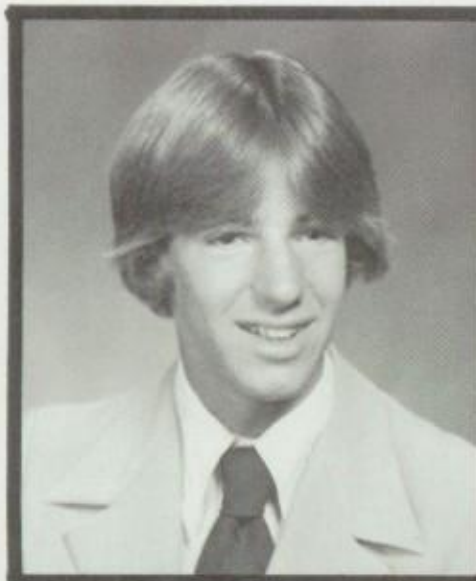

Ambition is to be fairly wealthy and start a business; senior class is "wild and crazy."

The Senior class decreased in number but grew in spirit as they dominated the second spirit week of the year. They dressed up in coats, ties, and dresses and switched to bobby socks, tee-shirts, and greased-back hair to win the trophy.

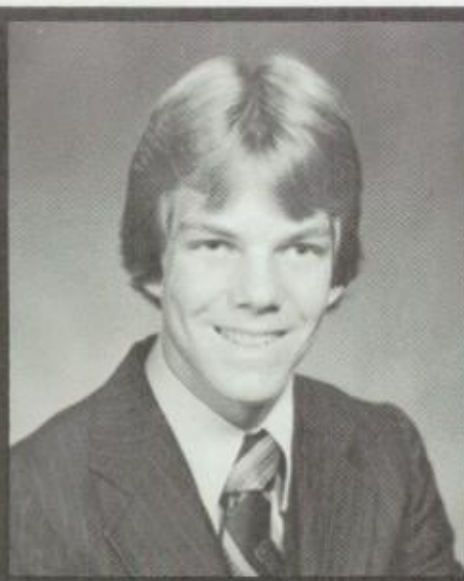

Pea green pots, dirty bowls, and dish-pan hands were results of the senior sponsored soup supper that raised money for their annual class trip.

1. Playing the game Election U.S.A. helped emphasize facts about American Government.
2. Kim Saxton and Kathy Gilde waste a study hall playing backgammon.

RICHARD LOUTER

Looks forward to going into the Armed Services; likes running and athletics.

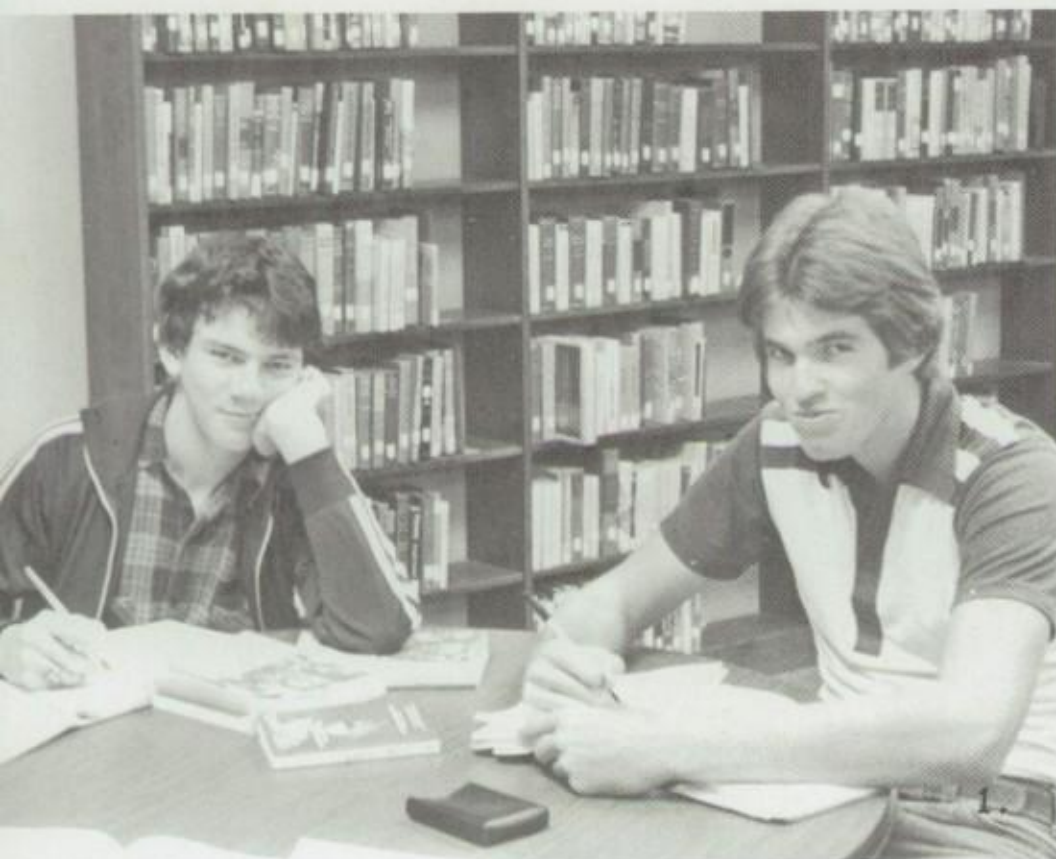

DOUGLAS MACHIELA

Likes to water ski and work on cars; ambition is to graduate from college.

TIMOTHY MC ALEER

Listens to music and enjoys basketball; Won't forget all the people in high school.

MICHELLE POUMAKIS

Will remember basketball practice, the 800 dirty dishes after soup suppers, and "my 40 tardies."

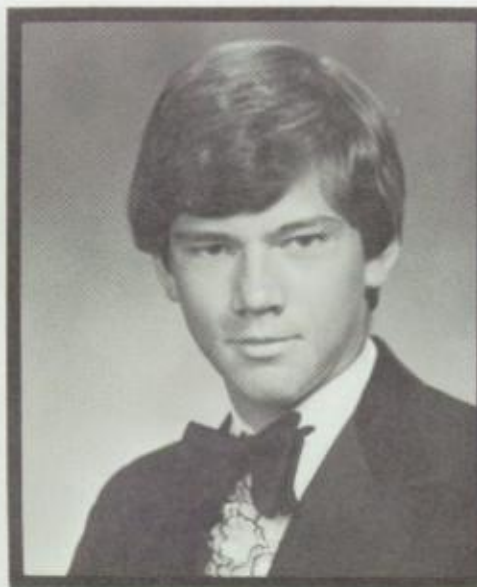

DIANA RANKIN

Highlight of my senior year was grad nite; ambitions include success and happiness.

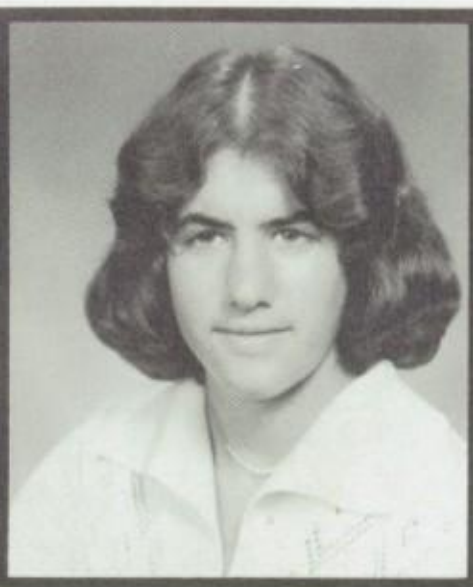

1. Jeff Rose and Ed Brill pretend to study for the photographer. 2. Carol Hogan, Pat Best and Kim Setsma work on the Defender float which won first prize during Spirit week. 3. Seniors brush off the dirt after failing to make a five-tier human pyramid. 4. The class enjoyed 100% participation in fifties day activities. 5. It gets crowded by the Senior lockers between classes.

JEFFREY ROSE

Highlight was to start on a state ranked basketball team; likes P.E. and mechanical drawing.

LYNNE ROSENBERG

Enjoys sports and mechanical drawing; Won't forget the crazy spirit weeks and beating King's Academy.

KIM SAXTON

Highlight of my senior year was grad nite; likes to visit friends.

KIMBERLEY SETSMA

Won't forget ASAPH, teachers or students; likes to make puzzles, play sports, and play musical instruments.

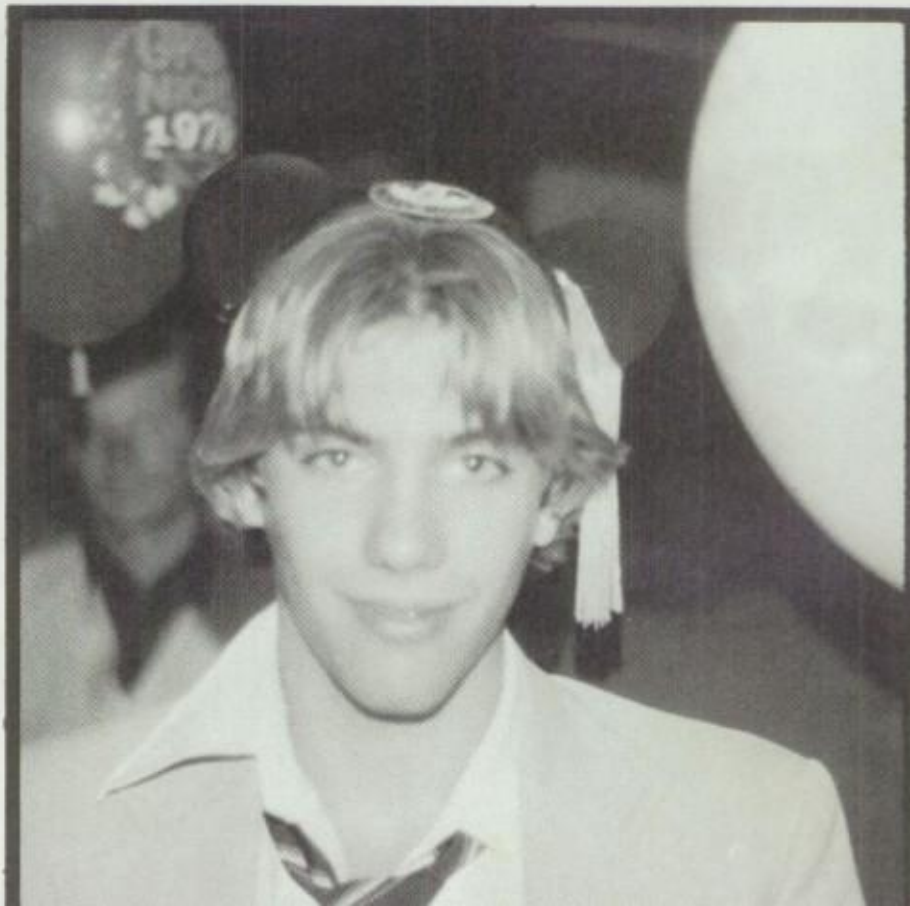

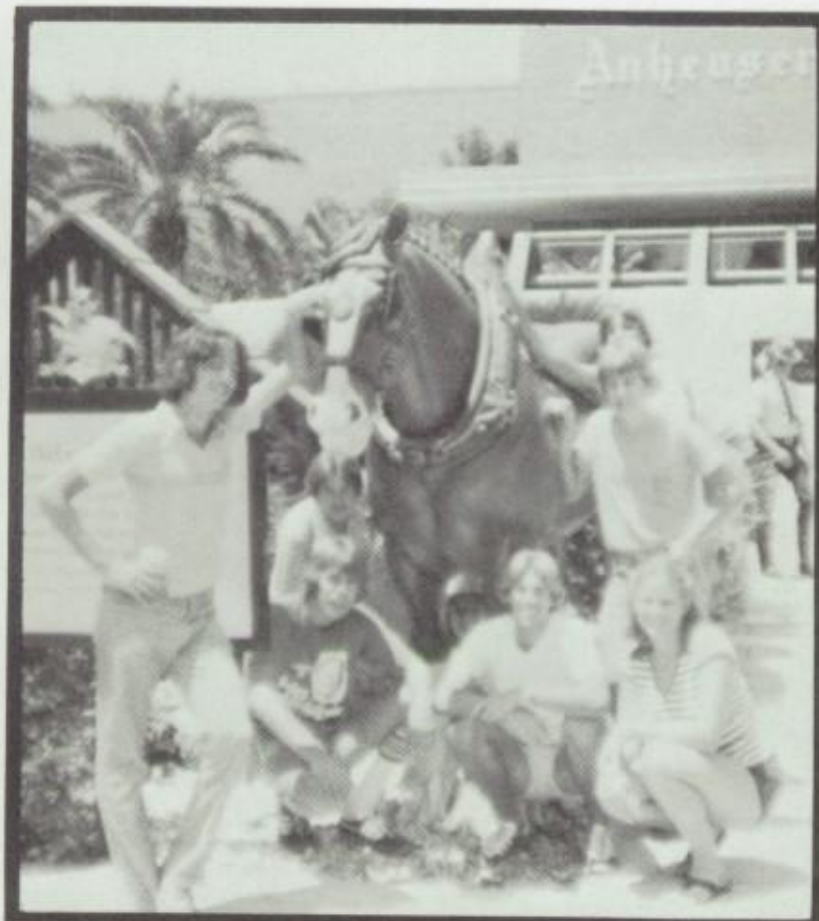

KATHYLN TRUMPIE

Intends to persue veterinarian zoology; won't forget the crazy things we did during spirit week.

HEAD FOR*

Twenty sleepy, but eager Seniors piled into two rented vans at 5 a.m. and hustled up to Tampa for a day at Busch Gardens — a long anticipated class trip.

Arriving about 11 a.m., the crowd split into smaller groups and proceeded to view all the attractions. They saw every animal and side show, plus rode every ride in excess of two times each.

By 3 p.m., everyone was ready to leave the gardens and go to the motel to swim in the pool, but not before they all purchased a Busch Gardens tee-shirt and breathed in helium gas from balloons.

The rest of the evening consisted of fights in the swimming pool, dinner at the famous Columbian Restaurant in Tampa and water fights in the motel rooms.

Unusual Experiences Enlighten Students

If the educational process doesn't include the good times, then it doesn't take place at Lake Worth Christian.

Every individual has faced a multitude of unusual experiences from dropping eggs off the roof to slurping whipped pies. No one has escaped this zany atmosphere, but through it all we worked hard to be academically successful and gain personal fulfillment through our studies.

The Witness

Born Again

Tell me how the wind blows, tell me where the wind goes,
You hear it singing through the skies.
You can't see what you feel, But you know that it's real,
Like the spirit in your heart that softly sighs.

Born Again. You can be born again.
You can live in the Father's love.
And when this life is gone
Like flowers that fade away
Your life will still go on through eternal day.
Born Again. You must be born again.
Let the Son take your darkness away.
For all the light and all the life of Jesus shines within
When you've been born again.

Choir Receives Two Standing Ovations.

The Concert Choir and Faculty Singers received standing ovations for both performances of the musical "The Witness." The pictures on these pages show the final rehearsal of this musical written by Jimmy and Carol Owens.

"The Witness" was written for the Christian singer to use as a tool in presenting the gospel. It's the story of Jesus told and sung by the apostle Peter and the other men and women who knew the Master best.

We heard from Peter (Alan Kaiser), the fisherman who made so many mistakes and yet became an apostle; from his wife, (Cheri Setsma) who suddenly discovered she married a traveling man; Mary, the Mother of Jesus, (Kim Setsma) who shares the secret of finding favor with God; James and John, (Lamar Galloway and John Barendsen) who begin to understand what the Kingdom of God is really all about; their mother, (Melani Wright) who watches out for the welfare of her Boys; and from tormented Judas (Dave Zylstra) as he realized he had sold his own soul. It was directed by Jim Van Ry, with Ryan Hill assisting with sound and lighting.

1. The cast takes a seat while a soloist performs. 2. Taking a breather during a long final rehearsal. 3. Melani Wright sings solo entitled "My Boys". 4. Jim Van Ry directs and controls the musical background. 5. Alan Kaiser, as Peter, brought tears to the eyes of the audience with his solo, "I Love You Lord."

Promotes Everything From School Spirit To Singing Candygrams.

1. Student Council members deliver the candygrams. 2. Doug Mast and Tami Stone tie ribbons around the candygrams. 3. A poster kicks off the drive for the Cary, Miss. project. 4. Student Council members hash over old business during their lunch hour meeting. 5. Members show Christmas gifts for underprivileged children. 6. Candy Kirk and Stacey Clark write poetic verses on candygrams. 7. Michelle Poumakis and Jeff Rose make candygrams. 8. Student Council guys load food and clothes in van headed for Cary, Miss.

Twirp Nite

About 50 students attended the Second Annual Twirp Nite, where couples enjoyed a cold cut and salad buffet and several crazy movies.

The entertainment attraction was "The House of Wax", a horror film starring Vincent Price. The zany actions of the famous Marx brothers also held the attention of those attending the Student Council sponsored event.

1. Trey Paulsen, Anna Schans and Doug Mast dig in. 2. Ken Ventura, Julie Baggett and Carol Hogan enjoy the favorite passtime. 3. Melani Wright, Larry Homan and Jeff Pollert await the entertainment. 4. Elayne Fiorella and her guest enjoy the meal. 5. The food line begins. 6. Sharon Van Korlaar laughs as her guest questions what he is eating.

Forty Weary Miles Tire Eager Riders

Bike-A-Thon Nets About $500

About 35 students participated in the 3rd Annual Bike-A-Thon held May 5.

Participants met at the "A" Street Campus at 8:30 a.m. and prepared for the forty mile ride. The bike trail went around Lake Osborne, out to A1A, along the ocean to Palm Beach and then home again.

The first rider to finish the course arrived at the Elementary School about 1:30 p.m.

Money earned will be used to defray expenses of the Athletic Department.

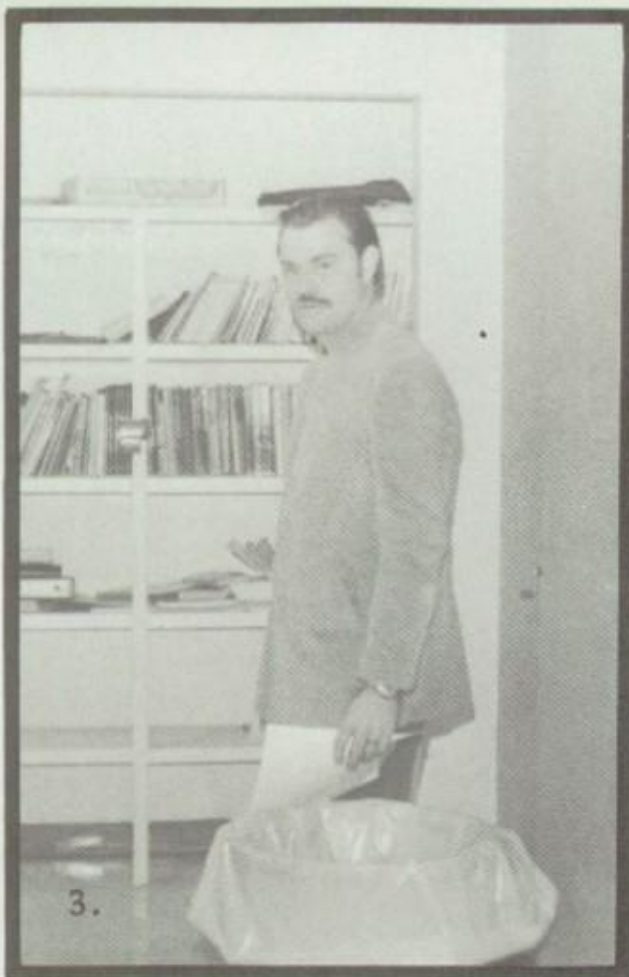

1. Don Fountain leads the Sophomores in a tug-a-war while Juniors fight back to win.
2. Seniors meet early to put pony-tails in each others hair.
3. Ray Drown slurps up a cream pie to win the pie eating contest.
4. Sharon Van Korlaar and Beth Fountain cheer on their teammates.
5. Students show variety of hats on hat day.
6. Student Council Vice Pres. Ross O'bear plays D.J. for 50's day over the school intercom.
7. Freshman boys perform in cheering competition.

1. Robin Duckworth races her trike. 2. The Seniors get wrapped in toilet paper. 3. Mr. 'P' gets into fifties day. 4. The Freshmen prepare to start. 5. Juniors brace up their pyramid. 6. Connie Siew and Sandy Drown (7) dress up in 1950's attire.

Spirit Week Rallies Support

During certain designated weeks of the school year, Student Council sponsored Spirit Weeks to rally support for the basketball teams.

The week consisted of 5 different dress-up days. They include formal wear, hobo day, inside-out day, clash day, 50's day, pony-tails day, color day, & hat day.

The week was highlighted by an hour of class competition in games and other fun activities.

Throughout the week points are scored, the class with the highest score at the end of the week won the Spirit Trophy. The Juniors won the 1st week and the Seniors came back to win the 2nd time.

JUNGLE SAFARI

The Junior-Senior Banquet '79 was a huge success. The "Jungle Safari" took place at the Challenger Club in Poincianna Place on April 27. Juniors and Seniors drank punch and socialized amid shrubbery, totem poles and wild African animals. Mrs. Patsy Varnadore played dinner music during the four course meal. Afterward, Tom and Sherry Green topped off the evening with an easy-listening guitar ensemble.

The Jungle Safari theme was carried out with five separate jungle scenes, complete with peacock chairs, wicker furniture, ceramic animals and an abundance of greenery. Each girl received a stuffed animal as a memento.

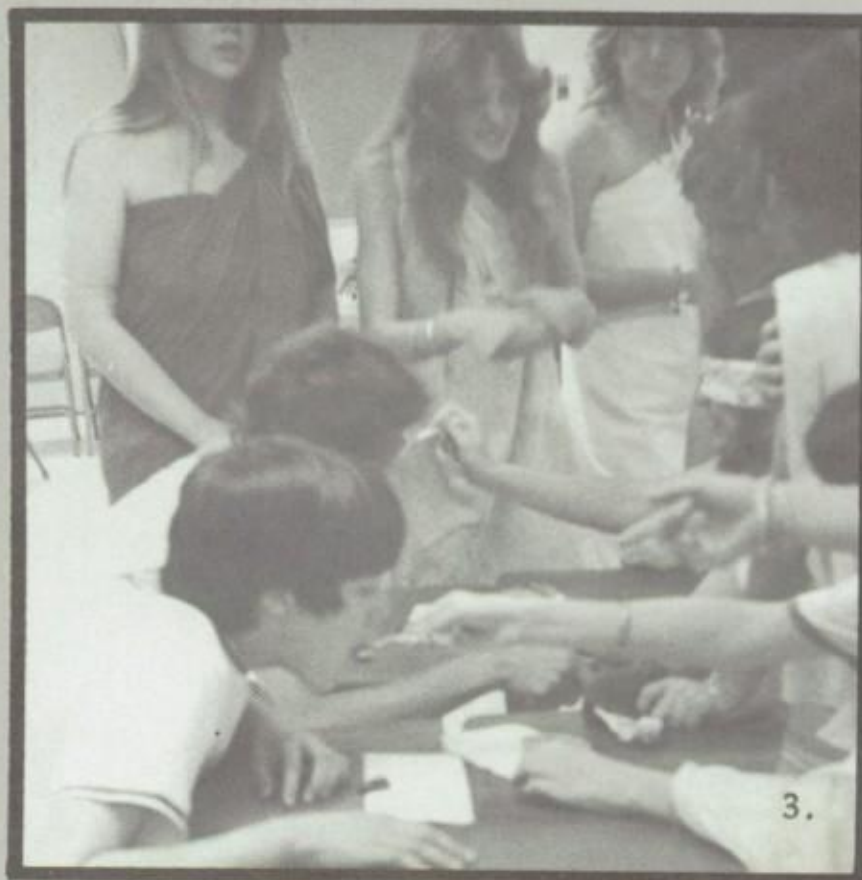

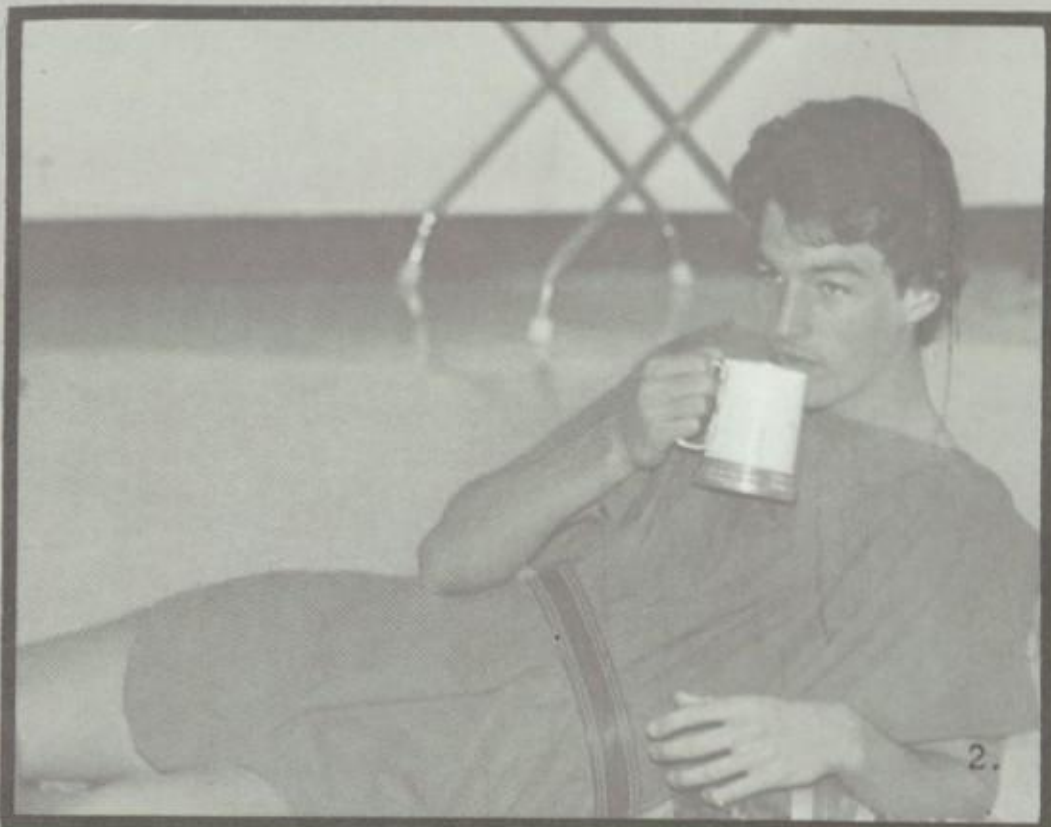

The Junior class put a lot of effort and time into the banquet. Hours spent painting backdrops and hauling plants and furniture kept the class busy weeks ahead of time.

Sophomores "Do As The Romans Do . . ."

Fresh fruits, nuts and raw vegetables were part of the sumptuous cuisine presented at the 4th annual Roman Banquet. Arriving in almost-authentic togas, the sophomores dined in a reclining position and ate creme pies with their fingers.

1. Anna Schans and Candy Kirk enjoy the breads and chicken. 2. A relaxed Don Fountain drinks his grape juice. 3. Feeding each other chocolate pudding blindfolded was only a small part of the fine entertainment.

Girls Gain District And Regional Titles

Coach John Bouwan

The girls basketball team won regionals and went on to Tampa for the Sectionals where they lost their bid for State Championship.

The team had a super record. By working together and trying their hardest, they won more games than any other year, Coach John Bouwan said.

The girls best game was against Kings Academy. The worst was with John Carroll in which J.C. players really put the pressure on and our girls lost their cool, Bouwan commented.

When Bouwan was asked if the team made him proud, he replied, "They sure do, I love them. They are a super team and they worked hard."

Best Season Ever

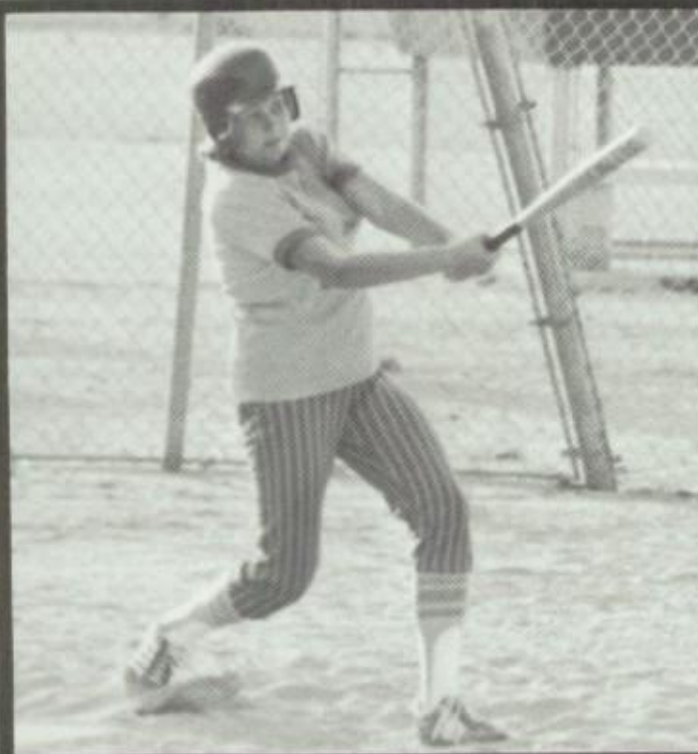

The Boy's Basketball team's 16-8 record topped any record in the history of L.W.C. Fast breaks and fancy footwork drew the crowds as our boys went all the way to Districts. "I'm very proud of this year's squad" said Coach Weirenga. "They played hard, although they should have won every game," he added. Captain Dale Hagedorn recalls, "It was a great season ... too bad it ended so soon."

(From Left to Right)
Sandy Drown, Candy Kirk, Pam Talsma, Cheri Setsma, Yvonne Boitnott.

The cheerleaders played a very important part in inciting spirit at our Pep Rallies. Their clever ideas for fun filled games and lively cheers, prepared us for the basketball games. With sore throats and stinging palms, they cheered the team on to victory.

Jr. High Sports

Boy's Basketball

Learn The Importance Of Team Work

"Even though the team didn't break any school records with the final 9-9 record for the season, I feel they played very well over all," Coach Dornbos said. "They learned the fundamentals of the game, such as, a fast break and a full court press. But most of all, they learned to use team work."

GIRL'S BASKET- BALL

This was the first year in which the Jr. High competed against more than two opponents. Playing about 14 games, the girls won five.

"The toughest team was St. Lukes," Coach Kaiser said, "we got creamed 36-20. But we did real well the rest of the season."

SWIM TEAM

Although the Jr. High Swim team was small, Coach Baker was happy with it's performance. "They turned in some good times," she said, "but because of the point system, we just couldn't win."

The team participated in about seven meets and the all-day county meet.

The Kindergarten went on a special Christmas field trip to Dorices, a store which specializes in Christmas decorations.

Although it was a real trial not to touch the many beautiful trinkets and moveable gadgets, Mrs. Zuidema allowed each child to purchase his own special ornament. She said the most exciting aspect of the trip for the children was seeing so many differently decorated trees in one place at one time.

SPRING PROGRAM

*Gymnastics And Skits
Make Mother's Day
Show Very Unique*

1. First Grade performs "Three Billy Goats Gruff."
2. Second Graders form a Choir to sing from the operetta "Peter Rabbit."
3. Fourth Graders present the musical puppet show "Jesus Taught Us to Share."
4. Kindergarten does a scene from the play, "Little Red Hen."
5. A Scene from "Peter Rabbit."
6. First Grade presents "Boy Who Called Wolf."

Also included was the Third Grade, which performed gymnastics and creative movement. The Fifth Grade sang several numbers.

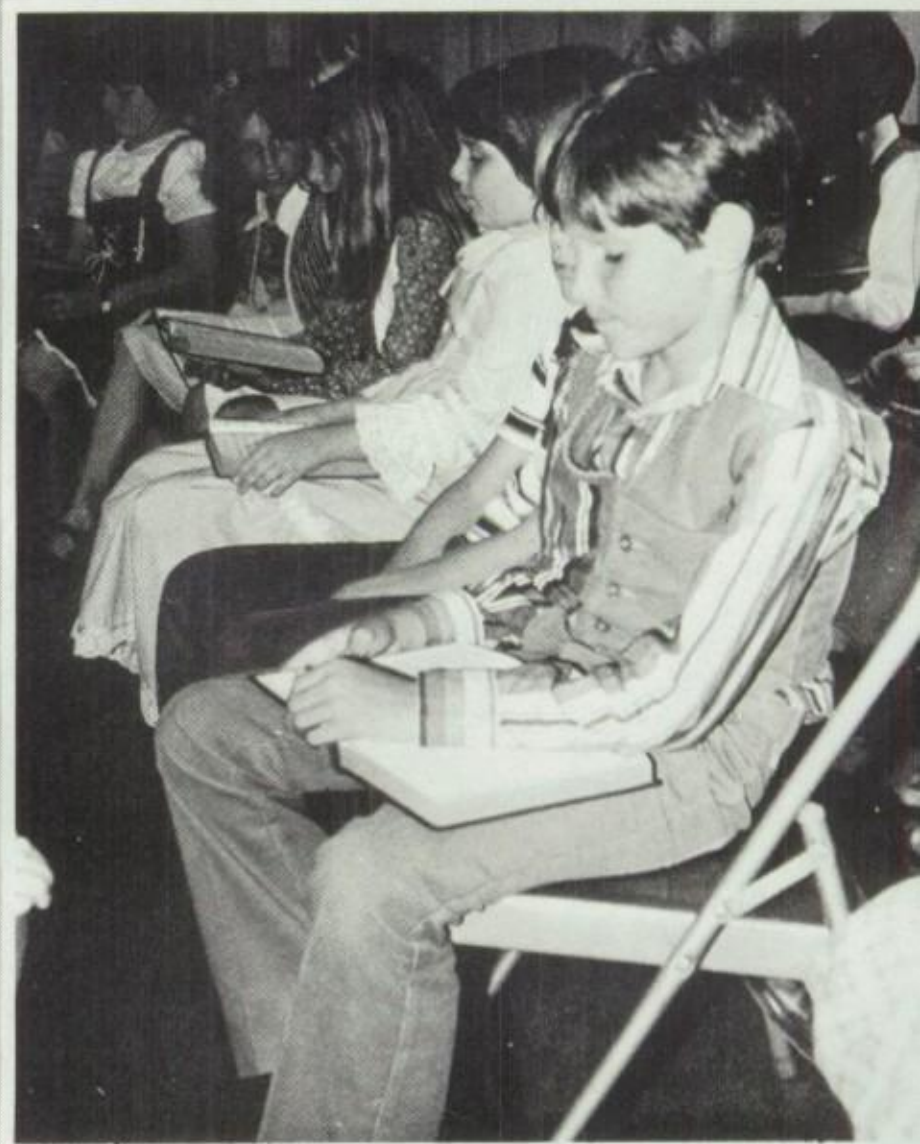

GET ON BOARD, CHILDREN

(or, what do you do on a rainy day in an ark?)

1. Steve Moore and Rick Conklin.
2. Karen Vander Wiele played the lead role of Mrs. Noah.
3. Rick Conklin and Paul Galloway.
4. Bobby Lawson

"... all the fountains of the deep were broken up, and the floodgates of heaven were opened. And the rain fell down upon the earth 40 days and 40 nights."

This was the scene when classes K-5 presented the children's musical "Welcome Aboard Children."

The children carried out the theme with narration (Tony Barendsen), acting and lots of musical compositions which included solos by Karen Vander Weile as Mrs. Noah, Paul Galloway as "doubting" Gomer and Rick Conklin as "trusting" Robert. They took the audience through the flood as though there were children on the ark.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

Numerous Blue, Red and White ribbons were given to all those who participated in the annual Fine Arts Festival. Students displayed their talents in many categories including; keyboard, vocal, forensics and arts and crafts. A special assembly was held for students and parents to hear some of the blue ribbon winners. A special open house was held for parents to view the many projects.

1. Brenda De Vries sings her solo. 2. Lisa Bender and Chris Galeta show off a special picture. 3. Sandy Howell, Arlette Vander Kooi and Joni Dykstra form a musical trio. 4. Sandy Howell entered the solo keyboard division. 5. Michelle Smith and Patty Clase display their first place craft items. 6. David Rinker won a first place for his box sculpture. 7. Shannon Minor and Susan Meltzer stand by clay figurines. 8. Beth Halter, Sandra Vander Kooi, Whitney Weeks and Traci Rinker perform for the judge. 9. Sheri Halter and Catherine Indianos sing during the special assembly. 10. Trey Lytal points at the second grade weaving projects. 11. Jody Derryberry shows her first place ribbon. 12. The Bill Minor family enjoys the fine art's open house.

Over $7,000 Added To Guild Treasury

The annual Fun Day and Bar-be-que netted a giant $7,000 profit for the Ladies Guild March 3. This was about $2,000 more than the year before.

The traditional pony rides, moonwalk, dunk-a-teacher, flea market, bazaar and country store all added to the profits.

Kids scrambled to buy tickets which allowed them to pitch ping-pong balls in fish bowls, dunk teachers in the water tank, throw hoops around bottles of their favorite soft drinks and jump wildly in the moonwalk.

Some new fun day activities included custom painted t-shirts and a gigantic auction. Beginning at 1 p.m., the auction sold everything from candles and car wax to antique sewing machines and plants. Much of the merchandise was donated by area merchants.
